

[Visitor Information]

Opening hours: 9:00 – 18:00
(Last entry: 17:30)

Closed: Every Monday

(or, if Monday is a national holiday, the following Tuesday)

New year's holiday (Dec 29 – Jan 3)

[Admission]

Single Museum Pass

Iiyama Furusato Hall

Adult ¥200 (¥150)

Middle/Primary school student ¥100 (¥50)

3 Museum Pass

Iiyama Furusato Hall

Iiyama City Art Museum

Iiyama City Museum of Traditional Arts

Adult ¥400 (¥300)

Middle/Primary school student ¥240 (¥120)

4 Museum Pass

Iiyama Furusato Hall

Iiyama City Art Museum

Iiyama City Museum of Traditional Arts

Mayumi Takahashi Museum of Doll Art

Adult ¥900 (¥800)

Middle/Primary school student ¥600 (¥400)

*Prices in () are for groups of 20+ people

*The 4 Museum Pass is valid for 6 months after the first visit

*Persons with a disability and one person accompanying are admitted free of charge.

*Please note that the museum hours and closures may be changed without notice

[美術館 Art Museum]

An art museum with over 70 pieces of art and sculptures by local artists, including a collection of artwork by the famous artist Seicho Hasegawa (1916 – 2004)

[伝統産業会館 Museum of Traditional Arts]

Iiyama traditional crafts such as Buddhist Altars and Uchiyama Japanese paper are displayed here. It also features some local traditional crafts of Nagano.

[高橋まゆみ人形館]

Mayumi Takahashi Museum of Doll Art

This museum displays over 100 lifelike dolls created by local artist Mayumi Takahashi. There are three galleries, a film corner and also a café for relaxing.

[Getting Here]

By Public Transportation

10-Minute walk from the Iiyama Station Madarao Entrance on the JR Hokuriku Shinkansen and Iiyama Line

By Car

10-Minute drive from the Toyota-Iiyama Interchange on the Joshin-etsu Expressway
Car park available (including large vehicles)

Iiyama Furusato Hall

1434-1 Iiyama City, Nagano Prefecture 389-2253

Tel/Fax 0269-67-2030

URL www.iiyama-ouendan.net/en/sightseeing/2011/09/2819.php

E-mail furusato@city.iiyama.nagano.jp

Furusato Hall

Art Museum

Museum of Traditional Arts

Mayumi Takahashi Museum of Doll Art

Iiyama Furusato Hall

[Welcome to the Furusato Hall!]

Opened in 2006, the Iiyama Furusato Hall preserves and exhibits its collection of information on the natural environment, history and culture of Iiyama City. The hall holds a collection of over 400 pieces of folk artifacts ranging from photos and replica models to ancient artifacts excavated in the city. Local experts are often invited to host seasonal and traditional crafts and technology workshops. Lectures and seminars on the history and culture of Iiyama are also hosted here, acting as an information hub for educating people and assisting with research

1F Learning Area / Workshop

Read books and information about Iiyama in the Learning Area, where seminars and special exhibits are occasionally held. The workshop has large working spaces available, perfect for hosting classes with crafts and other hands-on activities.

▲ Learning Area

Workshop ▶

1F Exhibition Area

Iiyama and the Changing Seasons

Located in northern Nagano, Iiyama is a countryside city surrounded by nature and stunning views. A diorama and photos capturing Iiyama in the four seasons are showcased here.

The History and Culture of Snow Country

Iiyama is in one of Japan's few heavy snowfall regions. Learn about the history and life in Iiyama through the displays of excavated artifacts, diorama replicas and tools and technology developed under harsh winter conditions.

▲ Earthenware / stone tool displays

◀ Castle Town diorama

2F Collection Area

The second floor has an archive of ancient documents and a room with a collection and display of traditional tools and antiques

▲ Folk Artifacts Room
Contains over 400 traditional tools

Antique Reference Room ▶
Displays earthenware and stone tools

